The Court at the stage of admission made the following ORDER:

This writ petition is filed by the petitioner seeking a writ of mandamus restraining the first respondent in giving effect to the proceedings No.AP/CP/43245/ENF/CTR/SRO/CDP/2004/4740, dated 04-06-2004 as well as the consequential prohibitory orders issued vide proceedings No.AP/43045/PD/ENT/CTR/2004/4861, dated 29-06-2004.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Standing Counsel for the 1st respondent.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the issue involved in this writ petition is squarely covered by the decision of the Supreme Court in FOOD CORPORATION OF INDIA v. PROVIDENT FUND COMMISSIONER, wherein, it was held that without summoning and examining the Contractor, who engaged the employees, so as to determine the liability of the petitioner, the Corporation cannot fix up the liability on the Principal Employer. He submits that in view of the ratio laid down in the said case, the impugned demand cannot be sustained. The learned Standing Counsel for the 1st respondent did not dispute the same.

Accordingly, following the ratio laid down by the Supreme Court in the above decision, the impugned order is set aside leaving it open to the first respondent to summon and examine the Contractors, who engaged the contract labour, and determine the liability of the petitioner, if any, after due notice to both the parties.

The writ petition is accordingly allowed. No costs.
